“ Didn't know Danny too well, he was a customer of mine when I worked at CD Auto Sales. But, whenever he came in, he and I would always strike up a conversation about something that was goin on. He was a very special person and I'm sure he will be missed. Didn't know he had a motorcycle or I would have liked to have gone bike riding with him. May he rest in peace.

“ Everyone should get the chance for a Big Brother like Danny, even as a kid family was important for him. I remember once, he got his bb gun taken away because of me!! Some neighborhood boy was picking on his baby (at the time) sister. He run right out of the yard , even thought he knew he would get in more trouble and beat that boy for me. I love you forever!!

“ I can't even imagine the world without you in it. You were one of the best friends I could have ever had. You helped take care of my baby when I couldn't and I so appreciate it. I so wish I could be there today and give the hugs to your family you gave to mine. I was honored when you allowed us to be a part of your family and will treasure the pics I have of you with Katie and Lisa at her wedding. You were always telling me how to be myself and not worry about others and when I finally listened things changed for us for the better. Thank you for that and I can never say how much your guidance means to me. We love you and pray that you are happy. Our prayers are with your family and if you guys ever need anything please call us. We will be there. Love you guys, Kim and Katie “ Danny.....I'm so saddened by your passing. I always looked forward to seeing you out and about when I came home to Henderson and to catch up. You gave me so many wonderful memories and so many smiles. You truly were one of the nicest men I've ever met and I will miss you forever. I'll miss farmin' with ya on facebook and seeing the posts about the new things you were doing. I'm so glad you found Tara and found the happiness you were always looking for. I'm sorry we didn't get to talk about Daniel and Jayci doing "The Prom Thing" together. How cool is that? See, Jayci knows good stock just like I did! LOL God Speed Danny and I'll see you on the other side my friend!

“ I really do not know where to begin or what to say, except how sorry I am that you are gone. Danny, I know that you will be missed by many and that you touched many peoples hearts and lives. You had a special way like that :) You were blessed with many friends and I was happy that you finally found someone that "got you" and that she made you happy. You knew how to be yourself no matter where you were. You were an honest, good, kind, loyal, and hard working man and family was always important to you. I thank you for the years we did have and I am very thankful that we had our son. He loves you so much! I just wish it had not been your time and that you could have stayed around longer for him. I know you will watch over him! He will need that. He has made you proud and I know he will continue to do so.

God Bless You Danny!

“ My mother asked me when I was 11 if anything were to ever happen to her, where I would want to live. My response was quickly "uncle Danny" I don't have the words for how much he will be missed or how much he ment to so many people. And I have nothing but regret for not seeing him in 2 years only to find out ill never see him again. I know he's in heaven with Grandmother, his sister and other realitives we have lost along the way. Its with a heavy heart that I say I love you uncle Danny, and the good truly do "die young"

“ Danny was one of the nicest people I have ever met. I feel blessed that I got to spend so many years throwing darts with him and to call him a friend. He had a knack for making anyone feel better when they were down. You couldn't ask for a more genuine person. I'll miss his hugs and his sayings, but I know he will be with us forever, in spirit.
