“ You may not remember us from all those years ago, but you touched our lives during our eight years in Kentucky. Although I was a child back then, I still treasure the memories I shared with your family. May God bless you and carry you.

Maybe we will meet in Heaven Darlene, and we can watch over God's four legged creatures! That was your passion! And it showed all around you! You will be missed!*

“ My heart goes out to Darlene's husband and her daughters. Darlene was such a sweet person, bringing many smiles to our family gatherings years ago. Some of the things I remember about her was the love she had for dogs & Pepsi with no ice. On Easter Sunday, many years ago, she had us all play "Fuzzy Bunny". This is a game to see how many marshmallows a person could get in their mouth and still say, "Fuzzy Bunny". It was so funny and messy but that was Darlene, always making things fun.

I am so very sorry for your loss.
