“ Reading the obituary brought tears to my eyes. What a beautiful person she was inside and out. We loved her dearly and as children we loved visiting your family. I loved her humor and wit and just loved being around her. She was always so good to us. It is the end of an era and a very special one. I know it was a glorious day when she joined Uncle Jr. and Kip. with love your cousins Barsha & Pattie

“ Doris was a joy to work with. She and Holly were a big part of my support group when I needed it. Thinking of the Fults family.

“ I love the Fults family. The kids of that family were like brothers and sisters to me growing up. This lady and her husband were outstanding examples of parents. They didn't realize it at the time, but they were a great influence on me. Loads of love and deepest condolences for the entire family. Especially for my dearest childhood friends and neighbors, the Fults kids.

“ We cherish the many years we had with Doris living in Franklin, Tennessee. We miss her charm, her wittiness and her sense of humor. She was so sweet with our young girls and challenging of our boys. Doris always talked about her children and their families. She is proud of you all. You took such good care of her, at least as much as she would let you. Her favorite story was talking about meeting Frank in school at the University of Kentucky. She loved remembering how Frank said One day that she should stop doodling and pay closer attention, but she was the better student, and she would show him. At least that's her version of the story, and she stuck to it. She missed Frank dearly, and I can just imagine the happy reunion that has taken place on the other side of the veil. May we all live our lives as well as Doris lived hers. With love for Doris, Frank and their entire family. You are in our prayers. Chris & LaReesa Sherwood
