“ I remember Mama Shirley use to pick up Denise and I from Grade School. . . and we had to hurry and jump in the car fast, because Shirley's Soap Opera "General Hospital" came on right at three o'clock, and Shirley didn't want to miss a minuet of it. . lol I know that Denise and I must of drove poor Mama Shirley crazy, because we were both "Why" children. . and we constantly asked her questions like "Why is the sky blue"? She would finally put her hands on her hips, and say. . . "Denise, I just don't know, so stop asking" lol Also. . we would go out to play outside, and we would get so dirty and sweaty. . . and She would get so mad at us for messing up our hair, clothes and arms and legs with mud, dirt and leaves. . . Oh Lordy. . . she would get us in. . strip us down and dump us in the bath tub. . get us all cleaned up, and we would just go out and do it all over again. . lol Mama Shirley, you were an awesome Mama. . . What a blessing it was to have you in my life at such a tender age. . . You will me missed a whole lot. . . I know you are safely in the arms of our Lord and Savior. . . no more pain no more sorrow. . . Love you forever. . . Lore Martin Verduzco
