“ Bob was a wonderful person. I'm sad to think that he is no longer in this world. He was an outstanding cook, and he could make things grow when most people would have given up trying. I know that if Bob and Nancy invited you out to "The Farm", you must have been SPECIAL, or you would have felt that way after you left! I was glad to think that you considered me to be your friend. Rest in Peace, Bob! You will be missed!

“ My family and I have way to many memories of Grandpa Bob to count. We loved hanging out at his home with him and Grandma Nancy swimming and having cook outs.
Roasting marshmallows in their firer pit and setting off firer works. Grandpa Bob will be missed dearly by My husband and I and our children.

“ Bob was a good Christian man, always smiling. He fought the battle of his illness for around 15 years, always coming back after we thought we were going to lose him. But this time God wanted to take him home. Bob will be greatly missed at Church of the Cross in Evansville where he and Nancy have been members for approximately 20 years.

Our thoughts and prayers go out to Nancy and the family who are surely going to miss him. I was even saddened today when I removed Bob from my church e-mail addresses.

I have two large evergreen trees and a willow tree in my back yard that Bob gave me several years ago when they were tiny. I'll always think of him when I look out my kitchen window now.
