“ Hi! I was a nurse for alice in 2012 and she was my favorite patient. I have been thinking of her very much this winter, till i felt compelled to look for her. I am sorry to find that she has passed on. She was so very tender hearted, big hearted, and such a possitive person. I still have a gift she gave me that reminds me of how much she welcomed me into her home and offered her friendship despite the circumstances of her health. I remember her fondly, and my condolences to her daughter also, i am sure alice is greatly missed by those she loved most.
