“ The memories are plenty. Amy was stuck babysitting me all the time. I went with her for most of her cheerleading practices, where I learned all the cheers for Grand Blanc. As a preteen I would spy on her when she hung out with her boyfriend and then make fun of her, but the one I was never allowed to live down was when I snuck out of the house, wearing her brand new clog shoes and scuffed them, she never let me forget. I spent time with her when I was a teenager, right after she moved to Eaton, and it was a time I will never forget. Growing up I always looked up to her, wanted to be included in everything she did, and was annoyed when I had to sit in the back end of the corvette, when she got to sit up front with our dad. Love you always!

“ My baby sister Amy Jo has always been the funny one in the family. She is known for pulling gags on us. Once when driving to a reunion my children and I did not see a stop sign due to intense fog. My son was driving.
He wound up plowing through the corn field.
Once we returned to our state we received a package from Amy. The corn cob family had a death and the police were looking for my son. She mailed the dead corn cob packaged in a small coffin. She was always doing stuff like that. She will be deeply missed!

Oh I remember that reunion! I had no idea she did sent the cob in a coffin. lol. Such a beautiful soul to bring joy and laughter into the lives of family, friends, and others she met. Pray for the Lords graces as she makes her way home.
