“ Anna was such a great loving, kind, giving, thoughtful, caring, Christian Lady. We had so many memories together playing Rook and other games. She loved her three daughters who she traveled with and she loved her husband. And loved her Church. And the Gathering Place. My heart 💔 breaks. I always called her my second Mother.

She was the best cook and canner. And she'd have a treat for you and a jar of relish. I will miss her deeply. I love you Anna. She always thought of others. 💔💔. Fly high Anna.
