

Brenda Sutton Owen

February 24, 1943 - January 21, 2016

Brenda Sutton Owen, age 72, of Henderson, KY, passed away at 10:07 AM, Thursday, January 21, 2016, at Deaconess Hospital in Evansville, IN.

Brenda was born in 1943 in Henderson. Her dad was an aluminum miner, and her mom was a homemaker. Brenda graduated from City High School. She was the basketball homecoming queen, a class officer, and voted most likely to succeed. She met the love of her life, Tom Owen, when she was in the 6th grade, where her teacher turned out to be her future mother-in-law. She and Tom married in July of 1966; they built a house in Balmoral Acres. They both were teachers at City High and then moved to HCHS where she taught for 18 years. Brenda was a member of Immanuel Baptist Temple and First Baptist Church where she always made sure her family was in attendance. She loved boating on the Ohio River and Kentucky Lake. She enjoyed Broadway plays, a couple of her favorites being The Phantom of the Opera and Les Mis. Most of all she loved her family.

Brenda was preceded in death by her parents Stanley and Frances Sutton and brother William Sutton.

Survivors include:

Husband: J. Thomas Owen Henderson, KY

1 Daughter: Tracy Peterson Vienna, VA

1 Son: Brian Owen and his wife Courtney Henderson, KY

“ I had Mrs. Owen as an English teacher at City High. She was the most caring teacher I ever had. She understood that I just could not give oral book reports and would take a 0 instead of doing it but she always gave me a pretty good final grade. She helped my brother so much. He had never learned to read and she took the patience to help him. Years later, I would see her come through the line at Spottsville School to have breakfast with her grandkids. I would always remind her how much she was appreciated. She will be missed by everyone.

“ Dear Tommy and Family,

There is sorrow from northeast TN in learning of the loss of Brenda who was queen of our 61 class in many ways. I will always remember her striking beauty, sparkling eyes and a calming voice. Passing is not always easy and requires the utmost in spouses. Peace be to you. We never meet for the last time in Christ. The best is yet to come!

*With fondest memories, we celebrate her life,

“ Tommy and family, I am so very saddened to learn of Brenda's death. She was a wonderful friend and mentor to me when I began my teaching career at Henderson City High. She was genuine, and dedicated, and had the most beautiful smile. She especially loved and cherished her family. Brenda was a positive, professional role model for me, and I will always remember her fondly. Sincerest sympathy, Sharon Voight
