“ I hope you are still accepting memories because I just now became aware of Cathy’s passing when I did not receive an annual birthday card and my Christmas card was returned. I was one of Cathy’s teachers at Glendale High School and we have stayed in touch all these years with cards. I am truly saddened by this news. Please accept my heartfelt sympathy.

“ When I first met Cathy, I asked her if her name was spelled with a K or a C. She quickly told me a C! So from then on when I saw her I would say, "hello to Cathy with a C"! She was so friendly and had a sweet spirit about her. Her daughter said to me she had a dream of dancing in the river of life with friends that had gone on before her so today she is dancing away in the presence of her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!
