

Charles Albert Luck

October 10, 1944 - April 8, 2017

Charles Albert Luck, age 72, of Kennesaw, GA, formerly of Henderson, KY, passed away at 2:05 AM, Saturday, April 8, 2017, at Tranquility Hospice in Marietta, GA.

Charles was born in Pasadena, CA and moved to Onton, KY. He moved to Henderson when he was 11 and in 1962 graduated from Henderson County High School. He was a math whiz in high school and that carried through his entire life. Growing up he loved hunting. He was very proud of the 50 years he spent working with the Bellsouth Companies. One of Charles' other passions were his children and grandchildren. He always tried to make it to all their important events. Charles set a goal to climb Stone Mountain with all his children and grandchildren, which was completed over time in October of 2016. Charles loved to travel. Together with Brenda they visited Hawaii, Canada, the Grand Canyon and Italy.

Charles was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Ida and Charles Shirley, paternal grandparents, Lola and Lurton Luck, his father, Ralph Luck, a sister, Sarah Hurt and a brother Don Luck.

Survivors include:

His significant other: Brenda Brooks

Children: Shawn Meiman and husband Gregory

“ Chuck was one of the oldest of the Luck cousins, I was the youngest. Several years of age difference made no matter. Chuck and Donnie always treated me with such kindness, although there were those...who shall not be named, who locked me in a closet! Anyone who knows a Luck, knows the constant, infectious smiles! Chuck's being constant! Thank you for the memories!!💕”

“ Chuck was my first cousin on the Luck side. There were 11 of us, Chuck being second in the birth line. Since visiting Grandmother and Granddaddy Luck every Sunday was a given, I always hoped other cousins would be there too. The thing I remember about Chuck was his smile. There always was one, and he had such a great sense of humor. He was a fun guy to be around, and very sweet. You have lived your life, Chuck, it is now time for a good long rest. I love you. Brenda
