

Cynthia "Cindy" Lynn Allen Denney

May 14, 1965 - December 6, 2023

Cynthia "Cindy" Lynn Allen Denney, 58, Eldorado, Illinois, went to her heavenly home on December 6, 2023.

Cindy was owner and operator of Purses and Pretties. From an early age she had a passion for fashion. Cindy was known as Zsa Zsa by her sisters. She was one of a kind, and after meeting her, you quickly found that out. She was very witty and had fun with whatever she was doing. She loved to do crafts, garden and travel. She loved all animals and really never met a stray animal she didn't try to take in. She loved her fur babies Simon and Smitty and her Heavenly fur babies Slick, Sophia and Sally. Cindy did things her own way, she was unique, free spirited, stubbornly determined at times, but she cherished every person in her life and loved with her whole heart. She took a piece of so many hearts with her.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Warren Sidney Allen and Eva Jeanette Allen Wheeler, father-in-law, Kenneth Denney, maternal grandparents, William and Mary Lillian Owens, paternal grandparents, Barney and Rosemary Allen, and brother-in-law, Brad Henshaw.

Cindy is survived by the love of her life, Stephen Denney of Eldorado, Illinois, her daughter, Lacey Younger (Chanon) of Destin, Florida, stepson, Hunter Denney, Eldorado, Illinois, stepdad, Virgil Wheeler, sisters, Jennifer Sauer

(Matt) of Geneva and Melinda Henshaw of Henderson, mother in law, Sandy Taylor (Kenny) brothers in law Michael Denney (Randee) Henderson and David Denney (Chrystal) Boonville, IN grandchildren, Jaydyn Green and Kassidy Green, Henderson, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and many lifelong friends.

“ Cynthia I will forever be grateful you were my older sister. We had our times, as many sisters do, where we may not have liked each other at times but we knew we loved each other all the time. I miss you and I’m so sorry I couldn’t have been at least a quarter the sister you were to me. You never missed a birthday or holiday and always had a card and something in a bag. You were so thoughtful. I love you always and I will see you later. Melyn
