“ Mr D, as we called him at RGIS, was an amazing and wonderful man. Had I known of his passing my husband and I would have definitely been there to pay our respects. He was a man of integrity, honor, morals, and high standards, except when it came to what he would eat on those long quarter end weekends...all but once we ate at convenience stores because he said you could find whatever anyone could want all at the same spot. God bless the family. He was a good, good man!
