

Delmon L. Cooper Jr.

November 25, 1930 - May 15, 2022

Delmon L. Cooper, Jr., age 91, of Henderson, KY, passed away at 5:38 a.m., Sunday, May 15th, 2022, at the Lucy Smith King Care Center under the care of St. Anthony's Hospice.

Delmon was born and raised in Mt. Sterling, KY in 1930 to Delmon and Iva Cooper. He was a United States Air Force Veteran. After the service, Delmon came to Evansville, IN to work at Recapping Tire Company with his father. He later worked as an insurance agent and as a salesman for Kraft Company and Creasy Food Distribution Company. Delmon decided to open Del's Key Market in 1974 which he owned and operated for 18 years. After entering retirement, he enjoyed working in the yard, planting trees, and visiting Florida every year during the winter. Delmon loved to travel across the nation with his wife Mary in their camper.

He was preceded in death by his wife Mary Alice Cooper along with his parents Delmon (Sr.) and Iva Cooper.

Delmon is survived by his daughter Dana Wilson Viars (Chad) of Henderson, Kentucky; granddaughter Brittney James (Michael) of Owensboro, KY; great-grandson Michael James II; and great-granddaughter Paislee Mykael James.

“ Dana, So sorry to hear about your dad. My condolences to you and your family. My first official job was at the Key Market. Mr. Cooper was definitely one of a kind! I can still see him standing in the office, talking on the intercom to people who were literally 10 feet away. Sincerely, Robert Reid.

“ Dear Dana, I'm glad to have gotten to see your Dad and his big smile at Colonial and regret not taking more time to reminisce about Del's, where we shopped our dogs were known to escape for a visit. Please accept my condolences for you and your family. I am sorry for your loss. Sincerely, Leslie Newman
