“ In my 10+ years of work at Wendell Foster I probably enjoyed seeing Diane more than most anyone else who called the place home. I know I wasn't the only one greeted with, "hi poopy head," but I still felt special and knew that this was her way of kidding with people she liked. I sometimes called her my favorite curmudgeon in response, although she was not really bad tempered; just an accomplished scalawag. She knew how to get your attention when she wanted it. She loved being around people and always kept the place lively. I know she will be missed and Cottage A will be a much quieter and less welcoming place to visit without her. I also miss visiting with her Aunt Mary Alice and her involvement in the resident family group. Rest in Peace Miss Diane.

“ Cottage A will never be the same without this beautiful spunky woman.
Every time I visited my brother Philip she was a delightful presence. She loved to see pictures of my cats almost as much as she loved saying their names -
Sipsey - BooBoo and Darwin.
She will be greatly missed.
