“ As we live in Illinois we didn't get together often, but we always kept in touch. When we did get together we had a great time. We are so, so glad that we had the opportunity to spend time with Donnie last summer when Joyce's granddaughter played in a softball tournament in Henderson. We enjoyed dinner together at one of Donnie's favorite spots and then he toured us through Henderson in his spiffy new red Dodge Charger, something he said he'd always wanted. We walked along the river and he drove us through downtown; he seemed proud of the progress Henderson had made over the years. Then we had dessert and some laughs at the Dairy Queen. We enjoyed a soft drink together the day we left; hugged and shared our good byes. I think we all new that this was likely the last time we would be together.

Although we didn't grow up together and didn't even meet until we were teenagers we had an instant affection for Donnie. He will always have a special place in our hearts and we will miss our brother dearly - - he always made us laugh.

“ I am Donnie's sister-in-law Polly Wood. I talked with him a few weeks ago. I will miss him. I don't believe I ever heard him raise his voice, always laid back and seemed to take things as they came. Jerry thought a lot of Donnie too. I do have a lot of memories of the times we all use to get together. And they were all good. Will miss you Donnie!
