“ When I was a little boy I called her Aunt Suzie. I spent the night when I was small and she always took the very best care of me. She was one of the kindest lady's I've ever known. She was like her mother, Aunt Doris who always spoiled you rotten, but at the same time let you know what they expected. There is no one who could love unconditionally like she did, even when she was in pain. She always looked out for the ones she loved. And even though I have not seen her in a while, she will always be a big influence in my life. I love you and will miss you.

“ I grew up next door to Jack, Doris, and Donna Sue. Her mom & dad were like my 2nd parents and Donna, the sister I never had. When she married my cousin, Harry Allen, I was the maid of honor at their wedding. I don't live in KY anymore, but when I would get back, we tried to always get together. I will miss her deeply. Love you Harry.

Donna was my roommate at WKU----I have many fond memories of our time in college. We didn't stay in touch but have thought of her often. I saw her death in the KRTA newspaper. Sympathy to her husband, Harry. Barbara Bewley Taylor
