“ Dora was my mom's (Dorothy Horn) best friend. They always had good times together. Dora used to say they both married a Bennie E. I use to stop and see her occasionally, but unfortunately, due to physical condition, had not seen her the last couple of years. She always seemed happy. May she rest in peace.

“ I have many fond memories of Dora from my childhood. The Ganno family lived next door to my Grandmother on Alves Street in Henderson. Her son Billy and I were the same age. I would be over at their house often in the summer, occasionally spending the night. I am very sorry not to be able to attend the visitation or funeral. God bless her good soul and may He comfort the family.

Dora was a wonderful person. I used to be her neighbor and would visit her and her husband Bennie often. They were always there for me and I am very thankful that they were part of my life. I lost contact after we moved and it saddens me that we didn't keep in touch.
