“ Mom had a unique relationship with each of us. She shared different parts of herself through those relationships.

My relationship with mom was mostly unspoken. We knew in our hearts and that was enough.

My mother had a great sense of humor. She loved to sing and dance. I will always remember her little "dance moves" with the expression on her face, the silly sound she made and the way she held her hands.

Mom and I enjoyed going to the movies (especially anything with Mark Wahlberg in it) and getting the kids tray with popcorn and a Hershey's Chocolate bar. We always took our ziploc bag to put our popcorn in so the butter wouldn't leak onto our clothes.

My most comforting childhood memory of my mom is seeing her at the ironing board singing along with Patsy Cline.

I Love You Mom. But you already know that.

“ My most precious memory of my mother will be the hug she gave me before her passing. She will be missed.
