Leo and Paula,
I can't remember the first time I met your Mom because I have known her my entire life. I guess the first time was at Fairview Baptist Church. Since my Grandma Ida Peckenpaugh and her daughter Mary Agnes lived in Bluff City I would hear the latest updates of the fine people like Dorothy and the Clement family and so many others. Of course attending Hebbardsville School our paths would cross. My sister Joanne was in the same class as Leo. Paula I remember both you and Dorothy worked at Methodist. Dorothy was a fine person and would always recognize me. She was kind and generous and so loving to so many people especially at Riverview School. Heaven gained another angel. I am so sorry and extend my sincere condolences. Your family will be in my prayers.
Sincerely,
Pam Peckenpaugh Horn
