November 23, 1961 - September 1, 2019

Edward “Eddie” Brian Sauerheber, age 57, of Owensboro, KY, passed away at 10:55 p.m. Sunday, September 1, 2019 at Caldwell Medical Center in Princeton, KY.

Eddie worked hard to be able to retire after 25 years of combined service with HMP&L and OMU. He loved being outdoors and enjoyed time spent at his lake house. He was an avid hunter, fisherman, and gardener. He enjoyed bird watching and loved attracting Purple Martins; he maintained a colony of over 100 gourds and houses. Eddie enjoyed working with his hands, whether it be around the house, in the garage, or at the grill.

Eddie was a family man who loved being surrounded by the little ones. He was a jokester who loved a good prank. Known affectionately as “Bubba” by his sister, he loved their annual holiday tradition of giving each other gag gifts. He was preceded in death by his parents William and Delores Sauerheber. He is survived by his wife of 37 years Tina Smith Sauerheber of Owensboro, KY; daughters: Christy Skaggs and her husband Glenn of Robards, KY, Sarah Mundell and her husband Nicholas of Owensboro, KY, Stephanie Sauerheber of Owensboro, KY, and Stacie Sauerheber and her partner Rob Numata of Seattle, WA; a sister Susan Rees and her husband Pat of Alturas, CA; a brother William “Billy” Scott Sauerheber of Baskett, KY; grandchildren: Chelsea Skaggs, Ally Skaggs, Draven Skaggs, Amira Karaze, and Isaac Mundell, great-granddaughter Penelope Lane Watkins; and several nieces and nephews.

“ Ed was a special man and was very special to my entire family. He and Tina have watched our children grow over the past seven years at the lake. This summer alone they helped my parents celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary and welcomed my new baby daughter. He and my dad were lake BFFs. :) Being at the lake will never be the same--his absence will be felt for years. My heart goes out to Tina and their children. We pray for them daily and will continue to do so.

“ I met Ed and Tina the summer of 2012 when we bought side by side properties on Lake Barkley. What wonderful neighbors! They were both such special people. Ed was friendly, helpful, generous, and always willing to lend a hand. He and another neighbor mowed our yard for weeks after Bill was forced to undergo surgery. Just last week Ed helped Bill put a belt on our lawnmower. Ed had a lot of knowledge about many things, but he was also blessed with wisdom. His place was “Grand Central Station” at the lake. Everyone came by to visit, especially around beer thirty. Bill always teased Ed about being the “Mayor”. Our entire family’s lives are richer because Ed Sauerheber was our next door neighbor. He is and will be greatly missed.

“ Ed was a staple at the lake. We jokingly referred to him as the President of the Lake House Owners. He and Tina were the life of the party; always smiling, laughing, sharing food and drinks with others. Ed was just as good with all of our kids- they all adored him. If my dad, husband, or kids disappeared...I knew where to find them- hanging out with Ed. The lake house will never be the same without Ed in his swing, welcoming us back. We are blessed to have known him. We sure will miss him.

“ I met Ed for the first time in July of 2012, when we both purchased lake houses on Lake Barkley's Eddy Creek Bay. Our lake houses were side-by-side, quite close physically, and each required some TLC. As we began to re-condition our respective properties, we soon became fast friends. Ed was one that I could ask about a specific repair or procedure, and he would have encountered it previously. More times than not, he had an answer or suggestion for me that helped. Many are the mornings that we sat on his porch swing drinking coffee, discussing crappie fishing, deer hunting, quail hunting, purple martins, our past lives and families, and even the state of our country today. Ed watched my six young grandchildren grow older these past seven years, and would always ask about them by name. I can remember several times when my granddaughter of 5 or 6 years of age would quietly slip out of our lake house. We would find her quickly though, sitting with "Mr. Ed" on his swing, telling him some yarn, he listening intently, and she as safe as she could be. I will miss the text messaging that Ed and I were exchanging regularly - especially during the winter months. Without Ed's texts, my received texts will go down dramatically. Ed was indeed my friend, and what better way to describe another. I, and my whole family, will miss him - we already do.

“ I still remember the first time I ever called you Daddy. I had asked Mom earlier in the day if it was okay, and she said I needed to ask you that question. The very thought of having to ask you put my stomach in knots. I was shy and timid and was so worried you would say no. I went outside and pretended to play just waiting for the right moment. You were working under the carport at the house out in Baskett. I finally built up the nerve and asked, “Can I call you Daddy?”. You replied back loudly with, “ Call me what?” I now know that tone is your surprised /taken back voice, but in that moment I thought your answer was a no. I answered back in a weak, quiet voice, “Daddy?”. You gave me a half smile and said, “I guess if that’s what you want to call me”. From that day forward you were my Daddy. I have never doubted your love for me. I was your first daughter, and that means so much to me. You have taught & given us all so much. I wish we had more time with you. I will miss you terribly & I love you so much Daddy.

“ Eddie was a good childhood friend of mine. I faintly remember his dad but his mom was a very sweet soul. I have Lots of memories of his collection of turtles to swinging so high on his swing set that we broke it. Not to mention the crazy birds that kept diving at us while we were trying to play in the back yard. I won't forget the time he passed out because the school was giving the kids shots in the arm in the cafeteria and he was next in line. Eddie was a fine person and forever in our hearts. Thinking of his family during this difficult time.
