Annie was preceded in death by her parents Richard and Lelia Raber, and her husband Bobby H. Lewis veteran of 22 years in the United States Army.

She retired from the Newport News School system at age 78 where she worked at Mary Immaculate School. Prior to that, worked for Eustis Exchange for 10 years and was a homemaker for many years. She was a member of Cash Creek Baptist Church and dedicated her love to Vacation Bible School and youth classes. She also participated with the local AWANA Club. Lewis of Newport News, VA; sisters Beatrice Goldsberry of Henderson, KY and Janice Mossman of Cadiz, KY; grandchildren Jessica Russelburg and James Adam Russelburg; and great-grandson Aden Russelburg. “ I called her Mz.Liz and she was my friend. I'm gonna miss taking Ms Annie and her daughter Carol for Birthday Brunch at her favorite place, Cracker Barrel. Ms Annie loved Flowers and Plants and her front Porch and Yard is filled with so much color and Hummingbirds. I'll miss my friend but her body and her sweet soul is now at rest and Heaven received another Angel of God.
