

Emma Lois Brown

June 27, 1941 - July 30, 2015

Emma Lois Brown, 74, of Henderson, KY went to be with the Lord at 9:00 AM July 30, 2015, at her home here in Henderson.

Emma was born June 27, 1941 to Herbert Staser and Mamie Billings Staser in Henderson, KY. One of her greatest joys in life was spending time with her grandchildren. She would take them to McDonalds and watch them play for hours. Emma was well known for her angel and snowmen collections, and her passion for her beautiful flower gardens with ceramic figures. She could be found rocking outside listening to her wind chimes. Emma made it a point to teach her children how to make her famous chicken and dumplings, and also excelled in the kitchen baking cakes and pies. She was also known for her potato candy. She visited the Goodwill store everyday.

A difficult time in Emma's life was the loss of her daughter, Toni, 45 years ago. It changed her life forever.

Emma served for over 20 years at the Kusan/Aeroquip plant in Henderson and was a member of Victory Christian Center.

In addition to her parents, Emma was preceded in death by her daughter, Toni Ray Littlepage, and grandson, Michael Littlepage.

“ I Remember a party Barron and Rhonda had in their garage. I'm not sure what it was for. she and I started talking about kids. She was telling me how clean Barron kept his room as a kid. She told me he would even take his bed completely apart to clean it. then she said "Now that's just not normal". I think I came back with something like I knew he wasn't normal. We had a good time that day.
