“ I didn't get to know Mrs. Weaver (Collins) as much as Bro. Weaver; he visited the store frequently. Mrs. Weaver was a kind and gentle person and I loved to hear to speak. Her voice had a calmness (angelic) and she always seemed to be so peaceful and worryfree. She was a natural beauty, and all the children inherited great looks from both of their parents. I am so sorry you lost your Mom, but she worked hard on this earth for her heavenly reward. I am sure she is getting the luxury she so deserves now!

“ Our favorite story was how Sister Weaver had to drive from her house all the way to Spottsville to take my mother, Ruth Loveless to the hospital when I was being born. She always smile and told me I was as much hers as I was Mom's. I love to hear her sing "The Great Speckled Bird ". I also remember being with Elizabeth and the girls and we were outside jumping the ditch and I got cut from something and Sister Weaver got the horse ointment and doctored me up. She always had a hug and a smile for me each and every time I saw her. I loved you so much and will miss you until we meet again.
