“ Terry, My Heart is incredibly heavy and sad for you. As a dear friend of mine, you both have shown me and all incredible love that I am truly grateful for. Let God comfort you and hold you close in the days and months to follow. Gary was the most selfless person I have known. I know Gary is dancing with Jesus and is still taking plenty care of the furry animals in Heaven and beyond! Nahum 1:7. Love you all Dearly - Nikolai Peek

“ Gary was a very talented man. I never thought I ever saw his true ability. He could coast and still stay ahead of many of his classmates. He often came off as gruff, but then he was surprise me with his kindness. Terry, my heart goes out to you. Please forgive me for not coming to the funeral home. Cancer is relentless. You are in my heart and thoughts.

“ Aunt Terry, I'm so sorry for this immeasurable loss. Sean and I have such good memories of Uncle Gary from holidays and visits during our childhoods. I'll remember his quick wit, dry sense of humor, and generosity most. Our family will be thinking of you both this holiday season and holding you close in prayer. All our love, Lauren (Brianne), Elliot, and the kids

“ A great man. He moved me several times and moved items for me. We hit it off since we both loved cats and I graduated 1973 WC and knew some baseball players from WC! A great guy. Love to his wife and Chicho and Sarah. And his family and friends.
