

Gary Scholz

August 23, 1948 - September 30, 2021

Gary Scholz, age 73, of Morganfield, KY, passed away Thursday, September 30, 2021 at his home.

Gary was a man who loved the Lord and loved his country. He was a proud US Army veteran who served in Vietnam for 3 years as a medic/bagman. He loved music and was a drummer. In his earlier years, he was in the band Bo Donaldson and The Heywoods. Gary was able to make a career out of doing what he loved; tending and growing plants. He was a caretaker at greenhouses and nurseries. He had a way with horses especially, but loved all animals. More than anything, Gary was an amazing husband, father, and grandfather and nothing made him prouder than seeing his grandchildren grow and thrive.

In addition to his parents, Lawrence and Isabelle Scholz, Gary was preceded in death by his sister Shirlene Dean.

Gary is survived by his wife of 26 years, Kimberly Scholz; sons Jason Leonard and his wife Rhonda of Henderson, KY and Greg Scholz and his wife Jen of Cincinnati, OH; daughters Regina Scholz Aman and her husband David of Oakgrove, KY and Krista Scholz of Cincinnati, OH; grandchildren: Branden and Jason Leonard, Ashley Traylor, Faith Brock, Johnathan Dorminey, Jady and Savannah Aman, and Andy, Megan, and Mikey Scholz; brothers in law
