“ I remember this one time when I had just not too long had moved to Evansville to work at the Old Boonville Hwy garage. I was out on a ticket which was called a Helper ticket and I was there to assist him, Meanwhile as I was pulling up to the customer home. George had already resolved the customer's issues. I was like man. He just smiled and said that he was just glad to see me. I then smiled and we shared a good laugh. But George was that kind of guy he was always thinking and trying to solve things. He was willing to help and always treated me with dignity and respect. I will miss him. George was truly a good dude.
