“ I went to school with Gloria and her brother, Darrel. Gloria had the sweetest demeanor! Her eyes and smile made me happy. I tried to make her laugh as often as possible. I would settle for just getting her to smile, so sweetly. Gloria was a precious soul. I will pray for Gloria and her family.

“ I remember Gloria and her brother as children. She was kin to the aunt of my husband, Sol Dudley, who was also a second cousin on my mothers side. Gloria was quiet and sweet, and had a pretty smile. I am sorry to hear of her homegoing, but I know she being welcomed by her family. She will be missed. God bless the family.
