

Glynda Jane Blanford

June 13, 1941 - December 8, 2015

Glynda Jane Blanford, age 74, passed away the morning of Tuesday, December 8th, 2015, at Cal- Turner Medical Center in Scottville, KY. She was born Friday, June 13th, 1941, to Henry Lloyd Sandefur and Anna Elizabeth Thompson Sandefur. Glynda graduated Henderson County High School, class of 1959. She was a retired bookkeeper and tax preparer. Glynda was of the Baptist Faith and attended Lawndale Baptist Church where she had made lifelong friends. Previously she had been a decades long member of Bellfield Baptist Church where she in her late husband, Jady, had married on March 31st, 1962.

Glynda was passionate about genealogy and it became a regular hobby that she pursued with her granddaughter and sisters. She enjoyed working with numbers- her granddaughter, Brecca, introduced her to the Sudoku puzzle in the Gleaner to which Glynda actively worked every days puzzles for years. She enjoyed board games with her grandchildren, cooking with them for the holidays, gardening and watching Hallmark movies. She had been an avid bowler in her days, even having been in a league. Glynda was a very family – oriented and nothing made her day brighter than a phone call or visit from someone she loved.

In addition to her parents, Glynda was preceded in death by her husband, James “Jady” Blanford, Sr. in 2015, and her son, James “Jay” Blanford, Jr. in 2014, her oldest sister, Carolyn Jackson, and two older brothers, Donald “Don” Sandefur and William “Buddy” Sandefur.

Survivors include:

Daughter: Tammy Mefford and her husband Jeff Henderson, KY

2 Sisters: Jeannie Easterday and her husband Larry Lafayette, TN

“ I was saddened to hear of Glynda's passing. We were classmates all our life and a dear friend as well. I thought the world of her and Jada and have a lot of good memories of our growing up together. She was a special person to me and I will truly miss her at our Henderson County Class of 59 reunions. Rest in peace my dear friend.

Polly, thank you for your condolences! This is Brecca, Glynda's granddaughter - and I can tell you, she absolutely loved her class of '59 and had shared so many wonderful stories about y'all!
