“ He was my grandfather. I loved him and he meant a lot to many. My father, Mark Moss, was killed in a motorcycle accident in 2010. I was 6. My grandfather was suffering. His legs were full of water and they would bust open. He had minor heart attacks all day. He used to go on these calling sprees and would call everyone he knew at night. He called me the night of his death. He was not his usual happy self. He did not want to stop talking. We talked for an hour. The next morning, I got a call. He had passed. I cried for the entire day. But I knew he would want me to keep moving.

“ Bob, I'm so sorry for your loss -- We have talked so many times over the years about our parents. I know first hand how hard it is to lose a parent. You and your family will be in my thoughts and prayers and I know that God will be a comfort to you. Memories will be a comfort to you in the days ahead -- Enjoy them.

Just a thought that came across my mind while thinking of your family. I should have said I remember Glynn as a child well but I remember him as Big Apple and his Honey Bee. Back in their CB days. Prayers to your family Bob.
