

Hazel Sellers

January 16, 1920 - December 31, 2011

Hazel Louise Sellers

Hazel Louise Sellers, age 91, of Robards, KY. passed away at 3:40 PM, Saturday, December 31, 2011 at Methodist Hospital, Henderson KY.

She was preceded in death by her parents Joseph and Ammie Eblen, husband Isham Sellers in 1986, brother Gale Eblen and her companion of several years J.L. Beasley.

Mrs. Sellers was a member of Robards Christian Church since 1939. She was a member of Eastern Star for over 50 years and a Kentucky Colonel. She was a secretary for the Henderson County school system and a volunteer at St. Anthony's Hospice. She loved painting and baking commercial wedding cakes.

Survivors include:

3 Sons: Isham Sellers II and wife Loretta Sebree, KY.

Hugh W. Sellers and wife Linda Robards, KY.

David A. Sellers and wife Patty Robards, KY.

8 Grandchildren

7 Great Grandchildren

Funeral Services will be conducted at 11:00 AM, Wednesday, January 4, 2012 at Benton-Glunt Funeral Home, Henderson, KY. Brother David Himmelheber will officiate. Burial will be in Fairmont Cemetery, Henderson, KY.

Friends may call from 4:00 til 8:00 PM on Tuesday and from 10:00 AM until service time on Wednesday at Benton-Glunt Funeral Home.

Expressions of sympathy may take the form of contributions to: Robards Christian Church or St. Anthony's Hospice.

Pallbearers will be her grandsons: Chris Sellers, Eric Sellers, Matt Sellers, Neil Sellers, Joe Sellers and Travis Sellers.

Arrangements entrusted to Benton-Glunt Funeral Home, online condolences may be made at www.bentonglunt.com .

Previous Events

Visitation

JAN 3. 4:00 PM - 8:00 PM (CT)

Benton-Glunt Funeral Home
629 S. Green Street
Henderson, KY 42420

2:00 P.M. Tuesday May 8, 2018 Funeral Service

JAN 4. 11:00 AM (CT)

Benton-Glunt Funeral Home
629 S. Green Street
Henderson, KY 42420

Tribute Wall

“ Hazel Sellers

November 29, 2022 at 08:01 AM

MN

“ My dearest Hazel, Please forgive me for not coming to see you one last time. I simply couldn't bear it. Saying good-bye is something I can't do anymore. I'm so thankful

we talked on the phone not long ago. You treated me like your daughter.

I remember going to your office at HCHS when I got sick at school. I would stay with you until you were through working, then you'd take me home. I remember you made my white HS graduation dress out of ONE yard of fabric.

I remember you hiring me to clean for you. You never said a word when I left dried milk in the glass after I washed it. I didn't find out about that 'til Doogie told me years later.....Now that I thought it over, it was his fault for not rinsing his glass out when he put it in the sink. I remember

you taking care of me and helping me shower when I came home from the hospital after having Amy. I remember you were the first to laugh at something, as well as the first to cry. You always bragged on me when I played the organ at church.....even though I totally butchered some beautiful songs.

I remember going with you to see the Gaithers in E'ville. I sat between you and Marie Owen pretending I was grown-up and mature as you all. I remember going to your house with Daddy once a week so he could watch Archie Bunker with Isham. They would laugh and laugh through the whole show.

Back then, I didn't know what was so funny.....now I do. I remember James Harold making you cry when he was your sunday school teacher. He taught every sunday on the LEFT BEHIND series of books. I couldn't imagine why he would want to hurt someone as gentle and soft-hearted as you. I thank you for loving me and being in my life.

I love you, always have, always will.

Mary Huntington Jobe 5/02/12

CL

“ Aunt Hazel is forever a thread---a bright, bold one--in the fabric of our family. She always found a reason to laugh--her light, silken, joyful laugh--when things seemed rough. So it always made everything better to have her around! I don't have a single memory of BIG family fun out in Robards, in Henderson--as well as many other places--that doesn't include Aunt Hazel, and the wonderful sons she and Uncle Isham raised...and later, their beautiful wives and kids. When I think of her, I think "love." My thoughts and prayers are with my mom's family today...love to you all.

Catherine Cole Lindberg - January 03, 2012 at 12:00 AM

DF

“ Thanks Hazel for sharing your love of baking cakes with me. Your delicious and beautiful cakes inspired me to strive to be like you! You will always have a special place in my heart! Love and prayers to your beautiful family.

Deena

Deena Crowley - Henderson, KY - friend - January 03, 2012 at 12:00 AM

BO

“ David and Family,
We were sorry to hear of your loss. We know it is never easy to say good=bye. Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers.

Brenda Phillips
Opal Snider

Brenda & Opal - January 03, 2012 at 12:00 AM

CB

“ *May tender memories soften your grief,
May fond recollection bring you relief,
And may you find comfort and peace in the thought Of the joy that knowing your loved one brought...*

~ Helen Steiner Rice

Hazel will live on in our hearts forever. We will always remember her contagious laughter and how she could light up a room with her smile. She was truly a lovely person and someone we will miss deeply. She brought great joy to our family. Her kindness and generosity will not soon be forgotten.

Although we are all in different parts of the country right now and cannot be with you today, please know that we are there in spirit.

Blessings,

Carmen, Scott, Lindsey and Alexander Jagoe

Carmen Tolbert Jagoe and Family - Owensboro, KY - granddaughter of J.L. Beasley - January 03, 2012 at 12:00 AM

RK

“ Doogie and family--so sorry to learn of your mother's passing. I know my own mother enjoyed talking with her week to week when she was in business at Robards. I know you will miss her. Please know you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers--rac

Regina Catlett - Sebree, KY - January 02, 2012 at 12:00 AM