“ I was saddened to read of Helen's death in the Altamont News. She was my aunt Frances Davis' friend from high school, and Helen, Frances and my mother, Gertrude Durham, socialized and went on trips together. When we had a family event, Helen was always invited and my children grew to know and love her as I did. She could talk about almost any subject, and we often talked about and shared books that we had read. When she moved to Effingham, Mother and I would pick her up to go get ice cream at a place down the street. She was a dear soul, and I'm so glad I knew her.

“ Tom and Susan I am So sorry for your loss. I know how difficult it is to lose a loved one. It will get easier with the passing of time. Love to both of you.

“ I was so saddened when I saw the notice of Helen's death. As her Bookmobile Librarian for some years, I had become friends with Helen. I enjoyed taking books to her and being able to sit and visit for a while. We liked reading many of the same books and we both enjoyed talking about them. She also shared stories about her family and her times living in Illinois. She spoke so lovingly of her kids and grandkids.

You try not to have favorites in a job like mine, but you cannot really avoid becoming closer to some than others. Helen was always gracious, kind, interesting and interested in the world around her. I regret Helen was in pain much of the time in the last few years, but I know my life is richer for having been able to get to know and serve her.

Sincerely,
Cheryl
