“ Please accept my deepest condolences to the family and friends who have lost their beloved Jacqueline. I have also lost ones very dear to me and know the pain experienced at such times. In 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 it brings out that "the God of all comfort" comforts us so that we might be able to help comfort others. That is why I wanted to write to you today. I have found the encouraging words of hope and promise recorded for us through the scriptures to be of such comfort. For example, in John 11:11-44 we read of the account when Christ Jesus resurrected his friend Lazarus. We can imagine how happy his family must have been to be reunited with him again. We have that same hope. In John 5:28,29 Jesus says "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". What a joyful time that will be. Our Heavenly Father has promised us that soon he will put an end to death completely at Revelation 21:3,4 and Isaiah 25:8. I sincerely hope that these and other scriptures bring you some encouragement. Please continue to look to "the God of all comfort" and to the love and support of those around you. Again, I am so sorry for your loss.

*With Sincere Sympathy,
