

James Arvel "Jimmy" Clary

May 31, 1920 - May 2, 2014

James Arvel "Jimmy" Clary

James Arvel "Jimmy" Clary, age 93, of Robards, KY, passed away at 8:30PM, Friday, May 2, 2014, at Methodist Hospital.

Jimmy was born to James Ernest Clary and Myrtle Bell Waite Clary in 1920; one of 12 children. He served our country with honor during WWII in the United States Army. He was honorably discharged and made his way home where he continued his efforts on behalf of our country by welding at the shipyard in Evansville. There he met his very own "Rosie the Riveter", Doris Darnell and they enjoyed 50 years of marriage.

Jimmy enjoyed a short career in the logging industry in his early days. After that, he began farming and never looked back. He spent his lifetime, sun up to sun down, on the farm. If he wasn't farming, you could probably find him fishing. Jimmy was known for his sense of humor; he made everyone laugh.

Jimmy was preceded in death by his bride of 50 years, Doris Darnell Clary and his eleven siblings.

Survivors include:

2 Sons: J. Clary and wife Mary
Scott Clary and wife Jennifer

1 Daughter: Marsha Clary Royster and husband Ron

2 Step Daughters: Donna Hall and husband Tony Jean Sallie and husband George

7 Grandchildren: Bart Moore, Brad Moore, J. Clary III, Cole Clary, Madison
Clary, Dax Clary and Alyssa Clary

9 Step Grandchildren

4 Great Grandchildren

Nieces and Nephews

Had fun what time I spent Rabbit hunting and working in tobacco fields when i lived out there with your family. Mr. Clary was a hard worker and played hard to. I know you all will miss him. Joey Christian
