“ I knew " Jimmy" as small child and into my teens. He and my mother "Alma" worked together for many years at " American Chrome" and dated for 8 or 9 of those years and stayed friends. I remember being at his home on Clay Street and his dog "Lucky" guarding the house and his son Mike playing in a band that practiced in his garage on weekends, we all had a lot of fun...His children's mother was "Coreen" (I am not sure of the spelling) I met her only once, when I was about 6 years old and I remember how beautiful she was and her telling me how much she loved them and Jimmy. "God Rest Your Soul" Mr. Wilkerson and God Bless Your Blended Families....
