I miss Jock and think of him all the time especially during turkey hunting season...I miss coming home from work and seeing him sitting at my gazebo just target shooting and relaxing. He really was the best hearted person and tried so hard to please everyone. I look forward to seeing him again and I know I will

“ Uncle Jock I miss you so much.. I've had several dreams about you since you have gone home and I usually cry when I wake up but there was one time that I didn't because you told me a joke and I woke myself up laughing out loud. I really love and miss you.. whenever I return home I'll see you again but until then I'll look forward to every dream I dream that you are there too. Your Niece, jimmi lynn
