“ I am truly sorry for your loss. I know this time is difficult and you and your family are on our prayers. I only was able to meet Jennifer on a few occasions when working with her mom. May peace and strength come to your family during this time.

God Bless.

Terri, Mark and family.

“ Jennifer was one of the sweetest, kindest, most unconditional people Ive met. She never complained about anything. She would do anything for anyone. God had a plan for her and we are all better for having her in our lives. She will be missed, but her spirit will be with us forever. God bless. My condolences to her family.

“ *To Jennifer's family,
Jennifer is and always will be in a very special place in all our hearts. I developed a deep fondness of Jennifer through working with her and being able to enjoy her beautiful spirit and talents. Her greatest gift to me was her gift of laughing. She smiled constantly and seemed so positive and happy. Many times a child born with a chronic illness can be a gift to learn how to live every day like it is your last. For Jennifer, many of us saw that quality, I believe she lived with no regrets and no sadness. She loved life and I love my life more for having known her.*

Thank you for giving her to all of us to love and enjoy.....

“ Tim, Charyl, David, Elizabeth & Matt,

My memory of Jennifer is of a lovely, brave, conscientious and holy young woman. I received news of Jennifer's death as my latest 8th grade class graduated. I remember her graduation; her class sang "Now Is the Time."

I am so sorry for your loss and pain. God bless you and comfort you as Jennifer enters eternal life. May her holiness fill you with peace.
