“ I worked with Jenny at Audabon Race Track (Henderson, Ky.) during the summer of 1968. She surprised me with her interest in boxing; we used to talk about it all the time. She knew about Marciano, Patterson, and, of course, Clay. I knew her sister Johanna much better; we worked as lifeguards together and I had a huge crush on her. I was so sorry to hear of Jenny's untimely passing and my condolences go out to her family, particularly Johanna.

“ Jenny was always a good friend to me. I learned how special she was in high school and college. We parted ways and did not see each other for many years. I hold fond memories and will always remember her kindness, and willingness to spend time with me. I shall never forget the freckle on the end of her nose and her sense of humor. Godspeed Jenny.
