“ Jeremy, 💕💕💕
What can I say! Kees and I are in shock, denial, angry, depressed, saddened, and cannot accept that you are gone! You were our friend, Kees's best bud, and our surrogate son! Kees is already missing so much your morning texts and after work phone calls checking on us telling us to have a good day and calling us "slackers" if we weren't up and at'em! We are going to miss that delicious Boston butt that you smoked on the ReqTec and shared with us! You always told us that we couldn't leave you behind in this crazy world and here you've gone and left us! You knew we were only a phone call away when you needed us and we now feel like we let you down somehow! I'll never again get to say to you "shut the hell up Jeremy" when you aggravated me! We just want you to know that we will miss you and we love you and hope you will be there waiting on us at the Pearly Gates of Heaven! Love Kees and Wanda! 💕💕💕🥂

“Buddy. Almost every day we had contact with each other, about our daily life and what was keeping us busy. We tried to be there for each other. You also told many times when the time is coming that the lord is calling us, not to go first. Don't leave me alone you said to me. I never did buddy, never left you alone and was there always for you, if you needed me. One call to make. Last week we had our last call and then the Lord called you to heaven. I am very thankful for having you in my life. You had still so many years to go, but the Lord needed you more. Love you forever buddy.

Kees.

“My life will never be the same without you sweetheart, just like it was never the same after meeting you. You made my heart full every single day Jeremy and I thank God for our time together. You told me hundreds of times that you couldn't wait to go to your real home with Jesus and hoped God would give you wings so you could fly. I told you "Of course He will baby, he is a good, good Father". You said that if you were called home before me you would ask Him if you could swoop down and get me when He called me home. I'll be waiting honey for that day to come. You made me promise to always be strong and I hope that I can make you proud, because I am trying my very best. I love you and I will see you soon baby when my work here is done. 🐼❤️🐻

“ I have worked with Jeremy over the years for projects on the phone and via emails. He was always so kind and always took care of us. I am so very sad to never get to work with him again. Life taken too soon from us all. It does not seem real. I am very sorry for his wife and family. You are in my thoughts. Jeremy will be missed.

“ I have worked with Jeremy the past 7 years. Although I never met him in person and only dealt with him on the phone, I knew from his voice that he was an amazing individual. He was always so calm and professional and always ended our calls with "Have a good day" I am so sorry that he was taken so soon. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with the family as you try to navigate life without him.

“ *Jeremy and I spoke not too long ago about our search for Heather.
We laughed remembering some of the things he did when he was little. I told Jeremy how very proud I am of him and how much I loved him.*
