“ *Hi uncle. it's been a while, hasn't it? I'm a senior in high school now. My major is still child development. I have found some piece in your problem I was having. Sometimes I drown my thoughts with music to stop from thinking. I've been doing very well in school. I have all A's right now and I'm doing very well for myself. It's been 6 years now. And still I find it crazy that you have been gone that long. Your girls are doing well. I still watch and take care of them even though they drive me crazy. DD sometimes gets jealous like when its someone else birthday. I hope she grows out of it. Tory has a daughter; I don't know if I told you that but Ya, she looks just like him. I have a new friend me, Mariah and Allyson is her name by the way. We go almost everywhere together. And next year we all are going off to college. Bubby birthday was yesterday, and he had fun. Mom is just like before but stricter on us usually me and Mariah but it's cool. well uncle till next time I have to get back to doing work and make you proud of me and what I have done with my life. i love you Uncle Maine and I always will until next time

“ Hi. Uncle Maine Christmas is Wednesday. I wish you were here. I've grown so much. Today at 10:38pm I had a break down. So I came here because it feels like you can see it I don't know how or why but I know you see these. To night I wanted to scream and yell but instead I cried to where my head hurts now. I know I wouldn't forget you but I'm scared one day I will. You wouldn't know what I would give to hug you again. For you to see your family. I have a boy best friend. He is like my brother. I love him just as I love you. I know I wrote you two months ago so I'm sorry for not writing you sooner. I'll try to write every month. But yea he helps me get the so many things. He is amazing. I wish you could met him. I want to make you proud and do something with my life so I'm majoring in child development. I know I can make it because I know if you were here you would tell me that I could do it but I'm trying. My anxiety gets bad sometimes but I just count to control it. I love you uncle Maine and I always will until next time

“ As it gets close to your death day. Something inside of me clicks. I can never think straight around the time because all I can think about is you not being here. I just can't believe you died in 2016. It's 2019 now and I still remember it like it was yesterday. Like it keeps repeating itself in my head. I know your gone and that's makes me sad I'll never forget about you. My sweet 16 is coming up June 20 remember 🥺🥺. I wish you could be there. So I can say goodbye one more time. So I can tell you the day you left for work that morning that I loved you and is glad to have you in my life. But I didn't and you didn't come home that day. When I heard sirens 🚒. I hope and prayed it wasn't you. But it was. It was and I'm still living with that pain. Everyday. Every hour. Every minute. Every second. Sometimes I cry so much that I can hardly breathe. I hope your doing well uncle. Guide me there these times.
Love you uncle

“ When I look over the years of my Young Nephew life !!!!! I'm so happy I got those. I loved him so much many knew too. Now I look forward to making new memories wit my Kinfolks. I looked for you at some point wen there in Kentucky to come through the door Aunt Susie!!!! I thought about you. I'm at peace all the way back traveling to Texas in my mind I played the Special times we shared over and over Again. You're to be miss by many that I'm Sure of . Aunt Susie tears are silent Now!!!! I look to my GOD to continue to make this LOAD light. Love You.

“ Jermaine was such a kind and considerate man. He was a customer of mine at the Circle K and will be greatly missed. Always had a smile and I can still tell you to this day what he got and how it went. Been a while since I seen him but the way he talked about his family I knew they were his world. He is greatly missed and my thoughts and prayers go out to the family and friends. God Bless you all. ”

“ I am Jermaines friend/co-worker of Roysters Production Machining. I've known Jay(what I called him) for 3+ years and the time I've known him, he was an awesome guy. We laughed, joked, and talked about alot of good subjects. I tell you, he was one great family man. He loved his wife and kids like no other. And on the job, he was a hard worker and very, and I mean Very dedicated to what tasks he had to complete for the day. He will truly be missed by his smoothness, smile, and personality. What a great guy he was. To the Family... im sending my condolences. May God be with you. He is in a better place now as we all know. Prayers are being prayed. Be Strong Johnson family.
