“ I am so sorry for your loss. Jerry was the consummate professional and a man of character. It was an honor knowing him and I am a better person because of the friendship we shared. There is no doubt Henderson is a better place to live because of the positive impact that Jerry had on the police officers he trained as well as supervised and the relationships he built with the citizens of Henderson. Jerry will certainly be missed but his teachings carry on.

“ Judy, Krystal and family,
So very sorry to hear about Jerry. We had some great and memorable times with him at HCHS over the years. He was a great co-worker and it's not the same without him. Sorry we never made it to "Briarpatch". He will be missed. Praying for you all,
