“ Jerry was my best friend. He left this world with a piece of my heart. He was a big part of my life for 23 years. I always could count on him to be there during the bad times and the best of times. He was my shoulder to cry on, my arms to hold me when I was down, my sounding board when I was mad, my voice of reason when I was confused, my crazy buddy to celebrate the good times and most important my best friend to pray with and for me when I was struggling. He could embarrass me with his goofy ways but at the same time make me laugh. He could aggravate me with his annoying tricks but then again he wouldn't have been the man he was without his aggravating ways. He filled a BIG part of my heart and now it feels empty. At this moment I feel..... lost! I will say this to the ones who know me best, Without a doubt, I wouldn't be the woman I am today if God hadn't placed this man in my life when he did. My marriage wouldn't have become this strong without God placing this man here to pray for us and give me his words of wisdom.

Thank you Jerry Lee Wallace for everything you gave to me and I will carry you in my heart Forever!

You were like a Dad to me and Matt in every sense of the word. All those long talks over coffee, the laughter, the tears. We love you so much and will carry your teachings with us always. Wise beyond words and so much more spiritual than you realized. You earned the name Cante Tantaka and that spirit of the buffalo was and is honored to be a part of you. Simply a treasure to us all . Love you forever, Lynny and Matt.
