“ She was such a kind woman! I only have fond memories of her. She was SO talented with her quilting! A true artist! I always loved how she had this beautiful big bird garden to look out over when I visited my Aunt Karen there when I was a kiddo, and I thought it was so cool how she had this little pully system of some kind to raise some feeders high up to dangle right outside her windows so she could watch them from high up there and still change the feeders easily.
