

Jimie Denton Staples

May 26, 1931 - February 12, 2015

Jimie Denton Staples, age 83, of Henderson, KY, passed away, Thursday, February 12, 2015, at Deaconess Hospital Downtown.

Jimie graduated from Hebbardsville High School in 1949. He started on the varsity basketball team when he was just a freshman. Three years after graduation he enlisted in the United States Air Force where he served our country for 23 years. He retired in 1975 as a Chief Master Sergeant. Jimie continued in Civil Service for 19 years as the Assistant Director of Commissary Region in South Western United States. Jimie traveled very much both for work and for pleasure.

Jimie was a huge UK fan and got to go to the SEC Tournament and the 2012 Final Four game. He loved playing golf. He loved his family and friends and never met a stranger. He enjoyed an active membership at Spottsville Baptist church where he was the Sunday school director.

Jimie was preceded in death by his parents Mallie and Rosalie Staples, 2 Sisters: Irene Peckenpaugh and Peggy Spencer; 3 Brothers: Arnold Staples, Ernest Staples and Jerry Staples.
