“ I never saw him frown, he would come into Sam's with a big smile, I loved talking to him, he just had a way of making your day. He especially glowed a little when his grand daughters were with him, he sure loved them.

“ He will greatly be missed! He has watched me grow up, playing in the neighborhood, he would always watch out for us and we were naive playing baseball in the road, he knew something was wrong when he didn't see us for a few days he would stop by and check on us.. everyone loved him and patty! Such wonderful people!

“ There are so many memories to share about my Uncle John from his gentleness, kindness and massive laugh that we all loved so much. After we moved from Virginia, Paul and I used to take turns staying all night on the weekends and summertime because we would fight too much if we both stayed. Uncle John would take us to the little store on the corner and tell us to buy whatever we wanted in the penny candy section, but tell us not to tell our mom. In high school when I was grounded from using the car, my friends and I went to his house and he loaned us his car to drive to Canton to go to the mall, never once telling my parents. In college, money was tight for me and when he came to visit me in my tiny dorm room, he was so upset by the size and that I didn't have a TV that he drove to an appliance store and bought me a little black and white TV and hooked it up before he left. I also came home one weekend and of course went up to visit he and Aunt Patti and while I was there he noticed I needed new breaks and tires on my little car so he had me take his car back to college while he kept my care and put new breaks and tires on it then drove it up to me the next weekend. His hugs were amazing and his love was enormous for all of us. YOU KNEW HE LOVED YOU! He also taught me the kind of man that I wanted to marry by showing me how much a man could love and care for his wife. He adored Aunt Patti and showered her with that love for everyone to see. You will be so missed Uncle John, but I thank our Heavenly Father for giving us you.

I love you,

Well uncle John I can't say enough about you ! I've been fortunate to have some great men in my life so far but you were right at the top. You always had time for us growing up and always had the answer I was looking for when I ask your advice. Watching you take care of Aunt Patty all these years showed me what being a husband and farther is all about. I will miss that big laugh and all the stories but I want to thank you for helping through life so far. Love you always Big John ! Paul Bowman

*Patty and family. John was definitely one of a kind. God sure needed a GOOD Angel when he got John. Patty think of all the GOOD memories of John and his laugh, all the love he shared with everyone he met. You were so lucky to have a love like you and John shared. John will still be watching over you start looking for the Pennies From Heaven. Love you and you will always be in my thoughts and prayer
