“ I have nothing but positive memories of John. While I did not know him for long, I immediately felt he was someone solid. He did everything he could to make the world, and his family, better. He will be remembered and missed.

“ I met John over 26 years ago when I joined the family. He's been a father in law and friend to me for a long time. He and Judith meant the world to me. My husband Barry became his friend along the way. Most importantly, Big John became Grandnanny to all of my family. He will be missed.

“ Keeping the family in my thoughts and prayers. John was a gem! I met him working with Judith. Their wedding was one to remember as Judith had a step stool handy for the kiss. He loved to go to Sam's, and various stores, and was always picking up something for us, bringing us treats, or sharing corn and veggies annually. He enjoyed and appreciated every day. He loved his grandchildren dearly, and he and Judith were so proud of their every milestone. I later found he and my Dad were friends and spent quite a bit of time together in their younger days, good and bad, and he was there to see my Dad when he was dying. John had an amazing sense of humor. I am thankful for his friendship.

“ I met “Big John“ almost 16 years ago. He was a friend of a friend. He was there to help me. We made contact on the phone before I met him and he said... You won't miss me. I'm the tallest person in the room. The meeting was at 8 AM. I questioned that. John told me it was the place to be and I trusted him. John became one of my dearest friends. We maintained phone contact one to two times per week for the past 16 years. He is a treasure. He carried me through hard times and laughed with me during good times. We shared inside jokes and our friendship felt like home. We sat in Rural King parking lot having burgers from Mr. D's a couple years back. I sat with him a time or two at Encompass most recently. (I felt sneaky... Bringing in that hamburger as he told me that the food was like cardboard.lol) Sometimes, our calls were brief. Throughout my father's illness, he encouraged me. He reminded me to practice emotional self-care. I was driving across town just last night and impulsively picked up my phone to call him.

Big John & I did not always see eye to eye on politics and religion and that was OK. We agreed to disagree. He was one of a kind! He is part of my foundation. I know beyond a shadow of a doubt that he is happy, joyous, & free today!!

“Love you, Big John. The check's in the mail” I searched for this picture on my Facebook post. It is Nov 11, 2017 at Cracker Barrel. It was captioned... “If you only get one true friend in this lifetime, may it be a friend like mine, Big John.”
