“ we were so sorry to hear about Joyce's passing. We were she and WD' neighbors across the street for many years. we loved spending time talking to them on their porch or at home. She always looked so beautiful and reminded me of my mom. During the bad ice storm when their power went off, we tried to get them to come over, we still had power. My husband and I fixed them meals and made sure they were not cold as they wouldnt leave their home. Joyce had a soft spot for my husband and would make him desserts. My favorite memory of her was the day she gave me a beautiful angel off her Christmas tree. I still hang it and think if her. WD shared his military stories and pictures many times and we shared meals. I am sorry I was out if town the week of her service. She was a great lady ❤️🙏 Prayers to your family in your loss.

“ *Years ago as a young and dumb woman with no flare for decorating I met Ms Owens. I had a antique lamp in need of a globe. I took the base into her shop for direction. She was so kind and wanted to be happy with the results. She took a lot of time helping me choose the globe. Fast forward 40 years, I treasure the lamp to this day. Sadly I never shared this with her, but her kindness is remembered.
Thank you Ms Owens.
