“ I remember Jesse telling me about eating at Greg's restaurant where his wife was working. Dolly was his waitress. He knew he wanted to get to know her. He asked her out and they knew it was right almost immediately to marry. He said Dolly was a patient woman, a caring woman and a gentle person.
One day he was exercising at the Gathering Place and got very sick. I finally talked him into going to the emergency room. They called Dolly and she came. That was the first time I met her. She was so remarkably kind. I could see instantly how my friend could fall for her. I am so glad that she was in Jesse's life. She promoted his genius, endured his oddity and was always there for him. God grant her peace.

Nice tribute Roy. Julia was in my Holy Name School class. I remember her as being a caring and gentle person. Just as Jesse described.

RE

Being more or less an only child, my classmates were (are) my brothers & sisters. We were a small class, a close class. My classmates were always so patient with me. Julia was very kind and sweet. Being tall, she and I were matched-up regularly at class functions. My condolences, especially to her brother Clarence, also a school mate, and all of her family.
