“ They are several memories i could leave but the one thacomed to my mind is how her Uncle James my mom and dad Gene and Joyce Gass always where going out to eat! Aunt Catherines birthday was mom and dads anniversary! She will be missed greatly but thing for sure she is with Gai, Butch, uncle James ans my dad who died March of this year! I have called her several times and visited with her when she lived in Hanson where she loved it with alot of freinds there too! She was a very special lady to all of the Gass family in Henderson so sorry for your lose but im very very sure she is very happy!
