“ Kate Richardson forged papers and stole my sister from her very young mother. she lied about me and my older sisters living situation and tried to steal us too. I would say I am sorry she is gone, but even her own son stole everything from her and had her put everything in his name so that my sister couldn't claim anything. no one knew that about her. she would stab you in the back to get what she wanted. I can say I'm glad she's gone, but I would have loved to see the Devil collect her evil rotten soul.

“ Hi Rick. So sorry to hear about your mom. She was an outstanding lady. You always knew where you stood with her and you always got a honest answer for any inquiry even if you didn't like hearing it. I think about her from time to time when I drive by your old homestead on Highway 60.
I still remember an incident from way back in 1968, at 14, when she rounded up me and a few other boys to clear a lot in Beals of small trees and shrubs. The guys started bragging about how great lumberjacks we all were and I made a bet with her that I could chop this little tree down in four chops. She didn't think I could do it and said she KNEW I couldn't do it which I disputed. I told her that I bet I could! So she proposed that if I could chop it down in four chops that I would get some type of bonus pay and that if I didn't I would get no pay for the day. I lost. That was a very discouraging day knowing I was working for free. But in the end she went ahead and paid me anyway. She will be missed.
